

Seventh Annual HALL OF FAME

2014 HEB ISD INDUCTEES

The Hurst-Eules-Bedford Independent School District hosted the seventh annual Hall of Fame Banquet and inducted six new members in front of a banquet room of well-wishers. The first Hall of Fame winners were inducted in 2008 as part of the District's 50th anniversary celebration. The following individuals were inducted into the HEB ISD Hall of Fame November 8, 2014. Each member was inducted into one of six categories.

DR. ROBERT K. GLENN

DISTINGUISHED LD BELL GRADUATE

Robert K. Glenn is the President of Athens State University. He became the 36th President in August 2008. Glenn is the son of Kyle and Elizabeth Glenn and he attended L. D. Bell High School from 1968 until 1971. Glenn said he has fond memories of his time at LD Bell and still considers himself a Blue Raider. While attending L. D. Bell he said he was fortunate enough to come into contact with a number of exceptional teachers. After graduating from L. D. Bell, Glenn obtained his undergraduate degree at Birmingham-Southern College in 1975. Glenn finished his master's degree in 1976 and received his Doctorate of Philosophy degree in 1991, both of which are in the field of counseling, at the University of Alabama.

MICHAEL A. JUTRAS, MD

DISTINGUISHED TRINITY GRADUATE

Michael A. Jutras is a family physician who is a lifelong resident of the Mid-Cities. He attended HEB ISD from elementary school through his 1975 Trinity High School graduation. Jutras has been recognized by his peers as a Top Doctor in Tarrant County since 2000. He has practiced at Harris HEB his entire career and currently serves on its medical board. Jutras has completed 27 years of combined experience in patient practice and health care administration. He has never lost touch with the Trinity Trojans. For almost three decades he has served as a team physician for Trinity High School. He is a sports fanatic and loves working with student athletes.

RANDY GARDNER

DISTINGUISHED COMMUNITY LEADER

Randy Gardner is a product of HEB ISD and graduated from L. D. Bell High School. Gardner began his career with the Bedford Police Department in 1976. When he was appointed Crime Prevention Officer his goal was to make police officers more of a presence in the schools. Gardner worked with HEB ISD administrators to develop age-appropriate programs for students, such as PALS (Police Officers at Lunch), Safety Town, DARE, and Every 15 Minutes. Gardner was also involved in working with campuses on their security procedures and monitoring their emergency drills. He was supervisor of the Bedford SROs (School Resource Officers) and worked closely with the Bedford schools' campus administrators.

ALICIA MCGLINCHEY

DISTINGUISHED VOLUNTEER

Alicia McGlinchey began volunteering when her children attended elementary school, first at Spring Garden and then Wilshire Elementary School. She was so involved in PTA that Wilshire Elementary School presented McGlinchey with a PTA Texas Life Membership in 2008. McGlinchey's children were early beneficiaries of HEB ISD's Schools of Choice programs. They transferred to Wilshire Elementary School when Core Knowledge curriculum and Suzuki Strings programs began in 2001. Although her children are no longer in HEB ISD, McGlinchey continues to support the school district. She joined the board of the HEB ISD Education Foundation in 2008 and has been its president since 2012. She also participated in the 2012 HEB ISD Leadership Academy.

MATTIE R. THOMPSON

DISTINGUISHED FORMER EMPLOYEE

Mattie Rutherford Thompson joined HEB ISD in 1968. While teaching music, she was chosen as the campus Teacher of The Year at both Bellaire and Wilshire elementary schools. Subsequently, Thompson became the counselor at Bellaire, Oakwood Terrace, and the Transition Center in 1988. She dedicated her career to the students of HEB ISD for 43 years. The Hurst City Council declared November 17, 2004 as "Mattie Thompson Day" in honor of her superlative service record in HEB ISD. She was also the recipient of a Texas State PTA Life Membership in appreciation of her dedication to children. Thompson continues to support HEB ISD as a member of the HEB Retired School Employees association.

JAMES B. MORGAN

DISTINGUISHED FORMER BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEMBER

James B. Morgan attended Fort Worth public schools and graduated from North Side High School. He earned his bachelor's degree and his law degree at Baylor University. After working four years in Washington, D.C., Morgan joined James Handy in Hurst to form the law firm of Handy and Morgan. In 1971, Morgan was elected to the Hurst-Eules-Bedford Independent School District Board of Trustees and served for nine years, the last three as board president. He continued to serve public education after leaving the HEB ISD board as the school attorney for several area school districts. In 2002, Morgan was elected to the board of the Education Service Center for Region XI in Fort Worth, where he now serves as President.
