

Communication

Education is a partnership between home and school. We value family engagement at every level and encourage you to partner with us. We are committed to two-way communication with families.

Please Feel Free to:

- Call
- write a note
- e-mail us

if you have concerns or questions about your child's education. We are always available to schedule a conference to discuss any issue or concern you have regarding your child.

Some Other Ways We Communicate:

- teacher Canvas page
- school website
- online newsletters from the principal
- email blasts and call outs from the principal
- MOOSE or phone calls

Spanish translators are available at no cost. You may also send a note in English or Spanish.

Family Responsibilities:

My child is at school to learn today.

I will:

- model respect for my child, the teachers, and the school.
- communicate with my child's teachers.
- make sure my child is on time and ready to learn.
- help my child make a routine.
- help my child set and achieve goals.

Harrison Lane Mission

The mission of our school family is to work together to build character, value learning, and be exceptional always.

Student Responsibilities:

I am at school to learn today.

I will:

- show respect for myself, my school, and other people.
- cooperate and work with my school family.
- come to school on time, ready to learn.
- be responsible for my own learning and behavior.
- set goals and work to achieve them.

Harrison Lane Vision

Build character!

Value learning!

Be Exceptional Always!

Staff Responsibilities:

I am here to help my students learn today.

I will:

- show kindness and respect towards students and adults.
- be open to communication with students and families.
- provide a welcoming positive environment for students and families.
- provide a variety of learning opportunities for children to learn in different ways.
- believe that every child can learn.
